

Central Pacific

On the beach, alone, in love

Every couple has dreamed of walking hand in hand, along a paradisiacal beach, feeling the softness of the sand while the water wets their feet. Costa Rica's multi-colored beaches are waiting for you. Come and enjoy their beauty and spend a perfect honeymoon under the sun!

There are many beach hotels in North and South Guanacaste, Puntarenas and nearby islands, Central and South Pacific, and South Caribbean Regions. Several local companies operate flight services to and from Liberia, Central Pacific and Golfito, and you can also travel by road.

Explore the underwater world in an amazing diving experience, go sailing around the coast, play with the waves in a kayak, go fishing, play some golf, visit the nearby natural reserves where you will be amazed by the lush greenery. Feel the passion and romance hidden in the beautiful sunsets, while you walk along the beach hand in hand, listening to the soft, rippling sounds of the waves. These are some of the options that, together with Costa Rica's natural beauty, will always be part of the memories you will have of a fantastic honeymoon.

Dropendula Waterfall, North Guanacaste

Central Pacific

North Guanacaste

Tortuguero National Park
North Caribbean